Recent Events

Read Through for next production:

Bernard Smith has accepted the invitation to Direct the production of Alan Ayckbourn's play Communicating Doors. The read-through on Monday 9th February in the Millennium Hall was very entertaining and generated much enthusiasm to push ahead with the performance. Don't miss the auditions (see below).

Future Events & Announcements

Chorus Line: Wendy and Ciara will be re-starting the popular Chorus Line. Watch out for notices on our Egerton Players - Chorus Line Facebook page: www.facebook.com/groups/EPChorusLine

Communicating Doors: Audition planned for Thursday 5th March 7.30pm in the Millennium Hall. The performance is planned for early June. The read-through showed it to be even funnier than previously thought: Six great characters, 3 male and 3 female, appearing at various ages because the play not only contains suspense, drama and comedy, but also time travelling! A brilliant stage play; typical of Mr Ayckbourn. We need as much help as possible back-stage and on the production team! Bernard plans to attend the AGM in order to give more information.

DVD showing of Scrooge: Friday 6th March 7.30pm.

Save the date for the DVD showing to remind yourself just how good it was. Bring food and refreshments and make a night of it! DVDs (£5) will be available for those that have pre-ordered from Wendy, with extra copies available to purchase.

Egerton Village Fête 2015: Saturday 4th July. We will have a stand at the fête so that we can promote the Players to new budding stars of the stage and willing back-stage helpers - of all ages. Glimpses of our amazing past productions will be on view. We will also be running a "tip the lady out of bed" stall - always popular among the younger visitors to the village fête. Helping hands to man the stand, stall and a spell of "bed tipping".

Parish Assembly, 18th March: We will promote the Egerton Players to attract new members with photos, discussion and literature. Please come and join in.

Quiz: This is proposed for later this year to be arranged after the AGM.
