

June 2015

Committee Notices

Apologies: What happened to the April edition?

Don't worry; you didn't miss it: we didn't produce one, owing to the fact that the Committee weren't able to meet up in April.

Finance: The accounts remain in good health with some £4022.44 in the bank. £447.62 in cash.

Do you want a copy of the Wizard of Oz? - Last orders please for a copy of The Egerton Players' award-winning pantomime "Oz". Please contact Chris Stevens barhamsmill1@virginmedia.com

Quiz night: Thanks to all who made the latest Quiz night a great success, last Friday (12th June). Special thanks go to Neil Crossley Roberts and his cohorts for running setting up and running the show. An enjoyable evening was had by all. Congratulations to the 'Did You Put The Cat Out?' team for a very convincing win. Commiserations to 'Billy No Mates' who came last, but with only two team members can take comfort from the fact that they probably had the highest individual scores!

Future Events & Announcements

Chorus Line: The popular Chorus Line continues - but it's the final one for a while as voices are rested over the summer. The next one is taking place on Thursday evening, 18th June at 7.00 til 9.00 pm. Add your voice to the heavenly choir...it will be held in St James Church in Egerton village! Register your interest in attending via our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/groups/EPChorusLine or with the Secretary (secretary@egertonplayers.com), or simply just turn up - the more the merrier.

Singing Workshops: For budding soloists, we have a whole lot more dates for you to come and 'have a go': June 15th & 29th, Aug 10th & 24th and Sept 7 & 21st, 7.30 – 10pm, Millennium Hall. Elaine Graham will provide on-the-spot coaching to help you improve; and then you can sing out loud in the bathroom, the kitchen the garden or wherever you like, and people will think you're a professional (well, that's what we would like to think, anyway). Contact Elaine Graham for information (elainedgraham@btinternet.com)

Egerton Village Fête 2015: Saturday 4th July. "Roll up, roll up" for the Egerton Fête on the 4th July. Come and support us at the Players stand and try and 'Tip The Lady Out Of Bed'. But even more, your help on the day would be much appreciated: just 30 minutes of your time is all we ask, giving others a chance to grab a burger and beer and rest their weary legs. Please let the Secretary know if you are available to help out (secretary@egertonplayers.com).

Talking of Volunteers...again: The Egerton Players relies on volunteers to help out at different events, but we really do need more volunteers of all ages who are willing to perform, direct and produce future productions. If you are able, or if you know of anyone who would, please don't be shy and do come forward. Anyone who has ideas for future productions that could be put on by the Players please also send these through to the Committee for consideration via the Secretary.
